

The Last Opportunity For This Term

TO ENTER

LINDSAY-WILSON TRAINING SCHOOL

We have the largest attendance, strongest faculty and best discipline in the history of our school.

Up to this time, we have had as many pupils as we could accommodate but have ordered new desks and added new members to the faculty, until we now can take

FORTY MORE PUPILS

We want this number by FEBRUARY 26 as the new month begins then, and pupils cannot well take up the Academic course after that time.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT Pupils can enter at any time. Reviews daily; Special Reviews every Month. Investigate our Work before entering elsewhere. We have Normal Pupils from fifteen counties which is evidence that Prof. Moss is awake and bringing things to pass.

Commercial Department

Minimum of Theory Maximum of Practice.

Educate for the purpose of life by taking a course in the following at one-third of the usual cost:

BOOKKEEPING, SHORTHAND, TYPEWRITING COMMERCIAL LAW, BUSINESS AND ORNAMENTAL PENMANSHIP, ARITHMETIC, BUSINESS FORMS.

Success in student training is produced as much through the best texts as by the best teachers. We are using the latest and best systems of commercial texts. We trust we may be pardoned if we appear to be immodest in our claims. It is our unceasing desire to improve with the age. We want our department to continue to grow in strength, in usefulness, and in numbers. If you want to secure the maximum of results in the minimum of time, and at the least cost, you have everything to gain by coming with us.

We use the famous Budget system of Bookkeeping, teaches actual business from the beginning. Piano System of Typewriting and Gregg system of Shorthand, which make the student readily competent expert, rapid and accurate Stenographers. A tree is known by its fruits; a number of our pupils who have taken lessons only one month are now writing fifty words per minute.

BUSINESS AND ORNAMENTAL WRITING.

If you are interested in good writing, either plain business hand or ornamental, and want to secure the greatest results in the least time it will pay you to see the work of our classes and be convinced to be with us.

Perfect classification at any time in any course except shorthand. A new class in it will start February 26th. Make arrangements to enroll at once. Be with a large class of earnest, energetic working pupils.

MUSIC.

Miss Penland gives Vocal Music FREE to our pupils.

Our class in Instrumental Music, continues to grow, and it is now larger than at any previous time in the history of our school.

ELOCUTION

Be yourself as nature intended. Always express yourself in the most natural way. Miss Duncan teaches the "NATURAL METHOD" of expression.

PRIMARY

We have FORTY-EIGHT Pupils in our Primary Department. After complete organization and classification we find we can take Twelve More. Apply at once if you want the advantage of a Trained Primary Teacher.

GOOD ROADS --- MORE BRIDGES

Mr. W. P. Chelf, of Knifley, was in town last week and made the following statement concerning the road and bridge proposition: I am in favor of the county building bridges where ever needed and as soon as we can. I am also heartily in favor of making better roads. As to a rock crusher I do not know whether the county should buy one or not, but it is the best way to get stone on our roads. I am in favor of such action. In our section we have plenty of gravel and can make good roads without a stone crusher, but there are many parts of the county not so situated. You may say that I am for more bridges and better roads and will endorse such action of our fiscal court that will bring these results.

Mr. H. B. Ingram, states that he is in favor of building bridge at Neatsville, this year and also to do what we can in making better roads just as fast as we can. I really believe that our first step should be to build a bridge at Neatsville. This could be done with a reasonable levy and not seriously interfere with reasonable progress in road making. I am willing to pay my part of the tax to purchase a road crusher and I feel that such a move would be to the best interest of the county. In other words, I want to see the fiscal court make some good and lasting improvements in building roads and bridges the money is well spent. I believe the people almost to a man, in our part of the county will endorse a progressive in step.

Mr. Milton Powell, puts in flat for better roads and more bridges, he says: I favor building bridges where ever needed and I am in favor of the county buying rock crushers and putting them to work. The grader won't do by itself, after the grader we want the rock.

T. T. Tupman says: I am in favor of good roads, but do not believe we will ever get them under the present system. I am not settled in mind as to the course we should pursue to get roads and do not know whether a crusher will pay or not. I favor waiting awhile before we build any more bridges.

I am tired of mud holes, and want the magistrates to relieve us if possible. I believe in grading the roads and putting on a good coat of stone. I favor the purchase of a stone crusher. I know the importance of a bridge and hope to see every important crossing bridged. At present I feel more interested in getting out of the mud. I want a stone crusher, Alfred Murrell.

Mr. W. R. Myers, makes the following statement: I favor putting rock on our roads and unless they are graded up and a heavy coat of rock put on we are not likely to have good roads in a century. The fact is, I am in favor of a progressive movement in building of roads and bridges. What we do ought to be done right. The putting of dirt in the road does no good and I favor doing it right. I heartily endorse the action of our town council, in buying a stone crusher and I believe the Fiscal Court ought to do the same for the county and then wear it out in active, effective use. I am opposed to rust. I am in favor of building a bridge at Neatsville, this year, if it can be done, and then make all the roads we can. We need to push out on these lines and keep at it when we start.

The Lyon Buggy Company, Campbellsville, Ky.

"Hop" Edwards, who was a citizen of Green county, died Wednesday of last week. He was well-known in Columbia, being related to the members of the family of the late Henderson Wilson. He was sixty-four years old and served in the Confederate army.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Over the Remains of Mason W. Hancock Friday Afternoon.

Wallace Hancock, as he was familiarly called, died last Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, a victim of Pulmonary and stomach trouble, aged 26 years ten months and one day. He was the second son of Judge and Mrs. Junius Hancock, and was born and reared in Columbia. His life was exemplary, and those who knew him best were fond of speaking of his excellent character and worth.

He was a student and before he reached his majority he decided to prepare himself to practice law, and a year or two ago he was admitted to the bar, but his declining health prevented him from entering into the active duties of his chosen profession.

Intellectually, he was far above the average. His mind was well-stored with ancient history and he kept well-poised on the current events of our own country, and was a fluent and entertaining conversationalist, hence he imparted much information to his less informed companions.

He was educated in the Columbia Christian College and the State College at Lexington, and from the latter institution he graduated in 1902. Last year when his health began to fail he went to the Mountains of Tennessee, hoping that he might recuperate his vitality, and he was temporarily benefited, but soon after returning home the diseases were again fastened upon his constitution and his general appearance soon told his friends that his days were of but short duration.

He was perfectly reconciled to God and tenderly bade his parents, brothers and sisters, farewell, saying that we will meet again.

The funeral services were held in the Christian Church, Friday afternoon, conducted by Eld. A. L. Oder, the deceased pastor, assisted by Eld. W. K. Azbill, Revs. J. P. Scruggs and W. C. Clemens. The first two talked, eulogizing the dead, and the latter two offered tender and sympathetic prayers.

At the close of the services all that was mortal of Mason W. Hancock was laid to rest in the city cemetery. Peace to his memory, sympathy for those who weep for a devoted son and brother.

What is the meaning of No. 21?

Mr. Jo Turner, who went to Illinois to see his son who got badly crippled while handling mules, returned home last week. He reports that his son is in the hospital at Jacksonville, and that he is getting along nicely. A letter from his son states that his physician thinks he will be able to start home in about six weeks.

A GOOD CITIZEN DEAD.

Mr. Robert Conover, a Prominent Farmer Passes Away.

Last Tuesday afternoon, after a short illness, the subject of this article peacefully met his God. He was born and reared on the farm where he died, and was known throughout the country as the very embodiment of honesty. He was a brother of Mr. R. R. Conover, and the two brothers were never separated until death entered their home.

The deceased was unmarried, was seventy years old, and a zealous member of the Baptist Church. The funeral services were held at the residence Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. P. Scruggs officiating. The interment was in the family burying ground, on the farm, many relatives and friends being present. The deceased will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends, but the one who has received the saddest blow is the brother, who was with him from infancy to old age. May the God of heaven comfort him in his bereavement.

You get $5.00 if you tell us the meaning of 21.

And "The News."

WALKOMIS, OKLAHOMA.

Editor News:

I am in receipt of several letters from Adair county, since my first letter appeared in the News, all of which I appreciate very much, but however, I fear that I cannot answer all of the questions.

There seems to be an idea in Kentucky that Oklahoma is a land inhabited by Indian tribes, and the riff raff of all countries. This might seem true to one living in Kentucky, but not to an Oklahoman. "Our character is what we are, our reputation is what we are thought to be." If this old adage is true, which I believe it is, Kentucky is not so bad as its reputation is, away from home. For the same reason some one might get the wrong conception of Oklahoma. Pardon me, but the following joke told here will enable you to get the impression of Kentuckians.

A gentleman passenger from the West had left Kansas City, en route to Oklahoma; this passenger remarked: "Is there any Kentuckian on the Kar?" after repeating it the second time, a tall, muscular looking young man in the front of the car rose up and said, "yes sir."

The passenger made his way to the Kentuckian's side and said; "I only wanted to borrow a cork screw."

It is true Oklahoma is inhabited by people from all states of the Union, and most all foreign countries are represented. This mixture of all has one advantage, the various and diverse ideas assist the farmer, the business man, and in fact all, are benefited by each other. "Where are you from?" "Missouri." "Where are you from? Kansas, Harper county. Halloo neighbor, where are you from? Kentucky. Good morning neighbor, where are you from? "Me talk-ey no English." Of course he is from Germany. These are every day questions and answers.

We have had an exceptionally warm Winter this year in comparison to last Winter, and now the cold wind of the North has given place to mild wind from the South. We are surely glad Springtime is coming. The wheat fields green and pretty, and now is the time when home-seekers get struck on Oklahoma. There seems to be something very fascinating about Oklahoma, that makes people like it so well. I have come to the conclusion that it is the rush and energy of the people. I will close hoping to hear from some of my Kentucky friends.

HATTIE VIRGINIA HENDRICKSON.

In Kentucky there are sixty seven counties entirely under the law prohibiting the sale of liquor and thirty-three other counties where license to sell is only granted in the County Seat. The County Unit law which is before the Legislature if adopted would add at least twenty-five of these counties to the prohibition column. The argument that is made for the county unit law is that the people in a county ought to be allowed to vote it out of a town where they do business and where they school their boys. It is also asserted, with truth, if whiskey is sold at one place in the county it helps to render ineffective the prohibition laws which prevail in the rest of the county. (Elizabeth-town, News.

SCHOOL SYSTEM CHANGED.

The entire reorganization of the common school system of Kentucky is proposed in a bill introduced by Education Committee No. 1.

Each county shall comprise one school district, and shall be controlled by the County Board of Education. The County Superintendent of Schools, County Judge and County Attorney are created a commission to divide their respective counties into four districts, called educational districts 1, 2, 3, and 4. The board shall be called together by the County Superintendent between September 1 and October 1 1906, to lay off the boundaries of the superintendent, judge and attorney the boundaries must be recorded in a book kept by the superintendent.

Each district is to be laid off into sub-school districts and each such district is to have one white common school as near the center of population as possible. In establishing additional schools the board is to have the same power that were vested in the School Trustees.

When any district wishes a graded school the County Judge may, upon a petition from at least fifteen resident taxpayers, order an election.

POWERS OF THE BOARD.

The County Board has the power to supply teachers for the sub-districts, but no contract shall be entered into before the first Monday in May of each year. The contract shall be made in writing. Teachers may be removed by the County Superintendent for inefficiency, immorality, inability insubordination and for disobeying any reasonable rules of the County Board.

At their first meeting the County Board shall appoint an official visitor in each subdistrict. He must be an intelligent citizen and make oath before the magistrate of his district that he will faithfully perform his duties. He shall supervise the schools and visit the schools at least once a month and sign reports showing that the teacher is entitled to the salary, and to report such things as are necessary for the health and comfort of the pupils. He shall hold office for four years, but may be dismissed by the Board of Education.

The County Board has the power to buy all the property and all the appurtenances of the schools and the titles are vested in it. Taxes collected from white people shall go to the education of the white children, and taxes collected from the colored citizens shall go to the education of the colored people, but all railroad taxes that go to the school fund shall be apportioned according to the census reports.

The County Board shall fix the rate of taxation to maintain the schools, and pay the per diem of the members of the board, the present excepted, by the first Monday in April.

The official visitor is required to take the school census in his subdistrict, and the enumerators also are to receive five cents for each name reported. Any census taker who certifies to a false census is subject to punishment for false swearing, and also a fine of $50.

The County Superintendent is a tribunal to settle all local controversy with reference to construction or administration of school law. The right to appeal to the State Board of Education is allowed.

Southern railway will spend $5,000 for new depot and pretty grounds at Versailles.

"Absolute quiet" in Jackson, Breathitt county. Just think of it. County Judge Taulbee, who put Judge Hargis out of business, says it's true.

Paris grocer, who closed business in conformity to Sunday law, want all restaurants and lunch stands to close up also. They want no "tilting of the lid."

Woman's Realm

A HOMEMADE HAT PIN.

"I'm from the country," said a plainly dressed but wholesome looking girl, who was the special guest of the New York girl who presided over the chocolate pot, but if you want all laugh I'll tell you of a little fashion of mine that I don't think is half bad. I wanted something new in a hat pin not long ago, something original, and I couldn't afford a jewel pin, so I made a hat pin for myself. I first bought a cheap segnet hat pin; the head I covered with a thin layer of waxing. Then from a piece of cloth of gold I cut a circle an inch and a half in diameter, and in the center I embossed my monogram. After this was finished I shirred up the piece of gold cloth and slipped it over the head of the hat pin and then wound silk around the base of the head until it was tight, just as the wire is wound around the broom. It made a very pretty hat pin and cost only a few cents. If your monogram makes too complicated a design, a single embroidered flower looks very attractive."—Grace Margarite Gould in Woman's Home Companion for February.

A VALENTINE ENGAGEMENT PARTY.

It is a pretty fashion to announce engagements on Saint Valentine's Day, and if there is an engaged couple among your circle of intimate friends, who expect soon to enter the bonds of matrimony, it is a happy thought to give an evening party devoted to them. Suitable little gifts are sent by the invited guests to the hostess the day before the party is given. These may be trifles for the table, dressing table, or any useful, ornamental or amusing article. They should be tied with gay ribbon in crepe or tissue paper decorated with hearts of cupids, and then placed in one large basket with handle and prettily wound with flowers. All should be addressed to the bride-elect.

After the guests are assembled the basket should be passed around, and each guest take a parcel. After they have all been supplied each person shall read the name on the parcel, also the name of the sender, and then deliver it at the feet of the one to whom it is addressed. Of course they are all addressed to the bride-elect or the groom-elect. As each parcel is delivered it is opened and commented upon.—Lillian Baynes Griffin in Woman's Home Companion for February.

THE FAMILIAR "NOTHING TO WEAR"

Another screen is needed to play an effective part when there has been one of those ultra-ultra functions in town, and somehow, your invitation failed to arrive. Angry and indignant though you may be at having this slight put upon your social prominence, conceal it, and the most long sighted of your friends will never suspect you to have been among the unbidden. When some one takes trouble to ask, with perhaps, a tinge of maliciousness, "Why were you not at Mrs. So-and-So's reception? I looked everywhere for you." Then is the time to bring out the screen. "My dear I was dying to go, simply dying but I hadn't a thing to wear. My black lace is in rags, and my other evening gowns are simply impossible. I went to Madame but she refused even to touch anything for me for two weeks and I simply cannot wear gowns from any one else. So you see my predicament. Oh, it was too annoying. But tell me, what did you wear?" And there you are neatly hid behind the screen, with the conversation led from dangerous channels. "I hadn't a thing to wear" will tide you out of many difficulties. Try it at some opportune moment. It is especially available for social climbers.—Woman's Home Companion.

RUSSELL SPRINGS.

Prof. I. S. Flanagan, of Casey, county, was here last week looking for a location.

Mr. W. A. Wilson, who has been to Indian Territory and Oklahoma on a prospecting tour, has returned. He reports that he will not make any investments at present.

We are informed that Dr. R. D. Hovious has rented the Lovelace property, and will put in a stock of drugs at once.

Mr. L. P. Hurt, of Montpelier, was here last week on business.

R. C. Hatfield has gone to Louisville to have his eyes treated.

Dr. James Hammonds has returned from a visit to his parents in Casey county.

S. P. Stapp, Jr., of Stapp Springs, was visiting his nieces here last week.

DIRIGO.

The pleasant days for the last few weeks have failed to take effect on the farmers of this section, as no preparation for the crop of 1906 has been made yet.

Hog buyers are plentiful in this section, but their efforts are futile, as hogs are scarce.

The protracted meeting at Greenbrier, conducted by Revs. Campbell and Walker, is progressing nicely. There have been several conversions and the whole community revived.

J. S. Campbell and A. D. Stotts transacted business in Cumberland county last week.

R. L. Campbell has been on the sick list for a few days.

Mr. R. Gowen, of Sparksville, was here last week.

We understand that the school at Breeding is progressing nicely with about 40 in attendance.

Born, to the wife of Kelly Parsons, on the 31st, a daughter.

WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

BLISS.

This has practically been a poor man's Winter so far.

Plenty of mud along the roads is a strong evidence of urgent necessity of a better and uniform system of grading and ditching.

Judge Herriford and wife, of Burkesville, were at the bedside of Mrs. C. M. Herriford for several days. She has been right sick, but we are glad to note that she has since improved somewhat.

E. C. and Chas. Murrell, two former residents of this land of Bliss, but now of Iowa, and Mrs. Mattie Vance and son, John, of Columbia, spent Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. S. T. Hughes.

We have been having some exceedingly nice weather and the farmers are rushed with burning plant beds, turning the earth for the next crops, clearing new ground, fencing etc.

Phones have been put in the residences of G. Whit Flowers, S. T. Hughes and Wm. Frances, so their respective families are now able to send and receive hellos through it anywhere in this wide country.

Miss Carrie Flowers, of your city has been visiting Miss Della Mitchell for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Sue Grissom has been enjoying the hospitality of friends and relatives in your city, the past week.

Mrs. Robert Conover was on the sick list the past week.

C. M. Herriford is our present post master.

John Pennycoff has moved to the place owned by Mrs. Mollie Troutman.

J. A. Miller and W. G. Turner have broken over 30 acres of ground, so far, on the latter's place, on Russell creek. They propose to keep their plows going on to an acreage of one hundred, to be put in corn.

Jas. G. Thomas, of Pollard's Chapel neighborhood, and Clarence Squires, of Fry, were visitors of Jas. O. Grissom last Sunday.

Whit Coomer, our Jolly blacksmith, and a Jack of all trades, is now better fixed than heretofore, to serve the public in his line, he having lately torn his old shop down and rebuilt to a better advantage.

Henry Hudson, of Columbia, was a visitor here Saturday and Sunday.

Jo Ed Flowers, wife and sister, Miss Ella May, of Columbia, visited at M. L. Grissom's Saturday and Sunday. Mr. G. A. Atkins and wife were also their guests.

Master Bruce, son of Dr. W. T. Grissom, is right sick—threatened with fever.

This is a good season for a sugar camp—a rare luxury in view.

Greens and jowl are now on bill of fare. Quite early it may seem for the season.

There was a social at the handsome residence of C. C. Stephens Saturday night, which was enjoyed by a large attendance.

ROWE'S X ROADS.

Mr. Harrison Lawless and Miss Bertha Helm were married last week, Eld. Robert Antle officiating. They will go to Missouri in a few days where they expect to make their home. Our best wishes go with them.

Mrs. John Lawless died last week after a long sickness.

Miss Mollie Hadley, of near Denmark, is still in bad health. Mollie has been sick a long time.

Allen Shearer bought a small farm from his brother, Hiram, for $150. Hiram bought the Billy Ripetoe farm for $175.

"Uncle" Shannon Mann, near Creelsboro, died last week and was buried Friday. He was quite an old man, and is survived by his wife and a number of children, he having been married three times in life. Your scribe witnessed his conversion about 25 years ago in a little school house in Mantown. He was very deeply convicted and went home, roused his family from sleep and brought them with him back to the meeting, shouting for joy all the way. He was a member of the Baptist church and died in good faith.

Bros. Whitten and Etherton closed a two weeks meeting last Sunday at Union Chapel, with 22 conversions. The very best order prevailed and the people were greatly helped to better life.

Other Shearer is in very bad health with kidney and stomach trouble.

JAMESTOWN.

Misses Nannie Rowe and Ella Lester, of Kendall, are visiting in Jamestown this week.

Brother Hazelwood has been conducting a series of meetings this week.

Drs. Flanagan, Logan and Kowe performed a very successful operation on Israel Stanton, taking out a large tumor from his thigh. It would have weighed 3 or 4 pounds. The patient is doing well.

Preacher Jo Woodbridge and Amos Hill, of Cave Spring neighborhood, where a protracted meeting has been going on for the past three weeks, have made a covenant that neither would eat or drink until Hill got religion. This is the tenth day, and Woodbridge was just able to walk yesterday. Hill was holding up very well, being a larger, stronger man. Woodbridge is rather a delicate man. How is that for the enlightened age—will some one answer?

Judge Simpson, Dr. V. G. Logan and C. A. Hammonds, were in Frankfort last week on business.

G. W. Helm, of Sewelton, has moved to town, and will open up a blacksmith shop here. Tarter Bros., our present blacksmiths and buggy workmen, are preparing to move to Somerset to open up a general repair shop. They have a complete outfit from a gasoline engine to a watch repairing outfit. They are first-class workmen.

George Bernard was declared a dangerous lunatic, and was ordered returned to the asylum.

Mrs. J. Q. Phelps, who was taken to Louisville to undergo an operation, is doing well after having a tumor weighing 66 pounds removed.

Our Sheriff, C. A. Hammonds, has his jury list and is out after the grand and petit jury for our next court which is to convene Monday week. You had better be packing your grips until after court.

CHAS. S. HARRIS, — Editor

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

WED. FEB. 14, 1906.

A bill has been introduced in the Upper Branch of our Legislature taking Adair county out of the Eleventh Congressional district and placing it in the Fourth. This is quite consoling to the Democrats of this county who have long sought liberation from the tremendous Republican majority piled up in this district, from year to year, when, in reality, Adair county has contributed but a small part of it. Just what will be the fate of the bill can not now be stated but from what Mr. James Garnett states, we believe that we are nearing the time when we shall realize this hope, so long cherished Mr. Garnett was in Frankfort last week and it was through his request that this step was taken to place Adair county in the district to which it has many common ties. He informs us that the Democrats of the Fourth are ready and willing to add Adair county, and this being true, we can see no reason why the bill should not become a law. The truth is that if through brotherly love we are carried out of the wilderness of Democratic despair and utter helplessness and placed in the border of the land of promise, those who liberated us shall never have cause for regret. Not merely from a political view should we seek to be liberated from the Eleventh to the Fourth, but the preponderance of the situation warrants the change. Geographically we are in the Fourth, not the Eleventh. From a productive standpoint our interests could be best advanced by a Congressman from the Fourth because they are common to the entire district, this being an agricultural county. Socially and in educational interests we are not moving behind the progressive movements of the district to which should form a part. In business matters we inseparably connected with many of the counties and the only reason that could be advanced is, that a Republican majority makes us an uninviting quantity, and this majority, though a mole hill, is viewed as a mountain, created and fed largely by the hope of Federal pie, it has reached its full power and strength which, in reality, will not exceed 200. The seat of the mighty, the center of power, in the Eleventh district, is in the county of Laurel, while Adair county has been hooked on to the western end to be fed and cajoled by Federal patronage, giving vim and vigor to our common antagonists and striking down the hopes and ambitions of aspiring Democrats. Change us, put us where we naturally belong, place us where we can share hope of winning a victory and the Democracy of this county will be revived, will take on its youthful vigor, return to its former prestige and help roll up a majority as a tribute to its liberators. We believe it best to our county, best for the Democratic party of this county and not hurtful to either the Eleventh or Fourth districts that the change should be made. The former will be left with its big majority and the latter will continue to be safe as in days gone by. Democrats of Adair will be given hope and our Republican friends can rest from their labors.

A Woman's Martyrdom.

It is too often her own fault, simply because she won't take sufficient trouble to try a medicine that so many thousands of women enthusiastically recommended, viz: Dr. Caldwell's (active) Syrup Pepsin. This bland, stomachic, curative medicine, regulates disordered functions of stomach, liver, bowels, etc., and soon restores sick women to perfect health. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page & Moore, of Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

JOPPA.

Quite a large crowd attended the funeral of G. A. Young, Sunday. His daughter, Miss Dora, who has watched over and cared for him so tenderly and lovingly, has the deep sympathy of the community.

R. O. Cabell has gone to Jopco, but will return in a few days, and probably do the singing for Eld. A. L. Odor in some meetings he is talking of holding in the county. Brother Odor's sermons are fine, and the people should not fail to hear his portrayal of the Christ life.

Miss Harriet Willis is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Jeffries, of Columbia.

Mrs. Fannie Willis is attending the bedside of her father, Mr. Wm. Conover, who is quite sick.

Rev. J. Atkins filled his regular appointment at Zion last Saturday and Sunday.

We understand Bob Willis, of color, who is a great trapper, is catching more cold than varmints this Winter.

Messrs. A. O. Young and J. W. Morris are preparing to tear down their old barns and build new ones.

The boys are enjoying this cold spell, shooting and hooking up a fine lot of fish out of Russell creek.

A two inch snow fell last Sunday night.

Mrs. Susie Carter, of Carrollton, Mo., is visiting her father, Mr. Wm. Conover.

Mrs. Sarah Cain and daughter, Fay, visited at H. P. Barger's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Kinniard, a student of the M. & F. High School, visited Mr. Alexander Brockman Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. Conover, who has been sick for the past two years is not improving any at this writing.

Mrs. Jennie Dohoney is quite sick at this writing.

Miss Addie Willis is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fannie Walker, of Columbia.

Miss Lula Bradshaw visited Mrs. Nora Willis Sunday.

The Sunday School at Zion is not progressing very rapidly, on account of so much sickness in the neighborhood.

Misses Emma Strange and Blanche Stotts, of Bliss, visited in Glenville last week.

In Self Defense

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky., when he was severely attacked, four years ago, by Files, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." RECORD BROKEN.

Mr. R. T. Mc Caffree Kills Fifty Fish at One Shot.

Last week Mr. R. T. Mc Caffree was a successful fisherman and many of the funny tribe were taken from the chilly waters of Russell's Creek by the use of hooks, guns, gigs. The pool of water just above the bridge on the Standford road crossing is from 4 to 6 feet deep and about 100 yards long and it was at that place so many were lifted. At one shot Mr. Mc Caffree killed 50 fish which, he says, breaks his record in shooting fish and from what we know and can hear sets aside the records of others who use the gun. A great many were hooked, several indulging in the sport.

COLUMBIA EXPANDING.

Mr. W. R. Myers sold a lot to J. L. McLean, on Fortune street. Just opposite Edwin Hurt's residence, and Mr. McLean will begin at once the erection of a neat up-to-date residence. Mr. McLean has also contracted to build a two-story residence for Mr. Myers in the same block but fronting the street that intersects the pike at the blacksmith shop. In addition to this Mr. Myers will have some valuable changes made in the cottage now occupied by Mr. H. C. Flowers, near the mill. Later on Mr. Myers will build two more houses in that part of town unless some one will buy the lots and improve them.

RIGIDLY HONEST

White Oak People Pay Every Cent and Give Extra to a Good Teacher.

Mr. P. C. McCaffree closed a successful singing school in the White Oak section last week. He had a class of 30 pupils and at the close of the term every one came forward with the cash and several stating that they had been so benefited that they desired to pay a little extra and from this standpoint several dollars were given. The fact that every one paid and several over paid their obligations to their instructor is highly commendable, reflecting credit on that part of our county. It would be hard to find a similar instance in any other community. What a blessing to the world if we had such action and such a guiding spirit throughout our entire land.

What do you say 21 means?

Capt. S. W. Moore, who was an uncle of Mr. T. C. Moore, who is a salesman in Russell & Co's store, died at his home, near Greensburg, last Monday evening of infirmities of age. The funeral services were held at the residence yesterday and the interment was in the family burying ground at Greensburg.

Prof. A. H. Ballard, has in possession a silver coin different from any other issue of that denomination that has ever come under his observation. Further more, he has never met a person who has seen a nickel like it. It has a milled edge like a silver coin and the word "cent" is off. If there is a person in the county who has a nickel like it, Prof. Ballard would like for it to be presented. The Professor also has a half-cent piece dated 1835.

What is the meaning of No. 21?

Our Portland correspondent sends the following problem: A bought three horses and one saddle for $485, put saddle on first horse, first horse and saddle cost $100; put saddle on second horse, second horse and saddle cost twice as much as first horse, put saddle on third horse, third horse and saddle cost three times as much as first horse. What is the price of saddle and each horse? Answer through News.

BEN W. COLEMAN,

Who Was the Town Marshal of Burkesville, Suicides.

News reached here last Thursday afternoon by phone, stating that Ben W. Coleman, who was the Town Marshal of Burkesville, had committed suicide by shooting his brains out. The deed was enacted in the suburbs of Burkesville and at the home of a man named Riall.

We gather, that Coleman went to Mr. Riall's residence and secured some accounts for collection. After they were placed in his hands, he drew his revolver, said good bye, and fired the fatal shot. It is further reported that he had been drinking hard for several days. The deceased had a cousin who suicided a few years ago at Edmonton.

THE ROAD QUESTION

The Springfield Ledger Thinks the Legislature should Put in Some "Needful Licks"

The Kentucky Legislature while "rumbling" round considering a flood of bills with more or less or no value at all should put in a few licks considering the question of public roads which surely is of importance to the welfare of the entire State. So far as we have noticed no serious effort has been made to afford relief to the present conditions concerning the roads of the State. The turnpikes of the State are rapidly becoming in a deplorable condition. A dispatch from Frankfort says that some remedy has been suggested in a bill introduced in the House fixing a licence tax on all vehicles whether owned or hired. The bill was drawn by Judge Holgrove, of Franklin and was introduced by Representative L. F. Johnson. Judge Holgrove drew the bill with a view of getting the matter before the House and to start what he conceived to be a much needed reform in the State. He did not claim for the bill that it was perfect or that it would meet all requirements, but he felt when he got it to the committee it could be shaped up to answer a good purpose. He is now preparing a substitute bill with Senator J. W. Cammack, of Owen county. Senator Cammack has given it a great deal of thought and he hopes with Judge Polsgrove to get a bill that will be satisfactory to all interests and accomplish the rehabilitation of the State's pikes.

NECESSITY FOR CROP REPORTS.

Under this heading the Annual report of the Government Bureau of Statistics for the year 1904-5 says: The purposes of the Government's reports, on acreage, condition, or quantity of agricultural products promised throughout the season, and on quantity and prices of farm products actually produced may be enumerated as follows:

1. To give information to producers, consumers, and dealers of actual yields; also to report the actual conditions of promise of crops.
2. To enable market centers better to balance supply against demand in defining current prices warrented by natural conditions.
3. To insure whatever stability of prices a changing state of natural conditions allows.
4. To be so certainly authentic and so comprehensive and definite for entire crop are as that interested agencies cannot well discredit nor warp the figures with their own estimates, and thus make wrong prices and unstable markets.
5. To enable producers to know the facts as to the promise of prices for their crops, that false report may not mislead them into early sales at prices wrongly made to low.

6. To create confidence, that sales and consignments by producers may be made more freely, that dealers may more safely conduct their business with lower handling charges and that manufacturers and other consumers may more freely purchase stocks to hold, thus adding certainty and stability to their business, that they may work on a less speculative basis, and thus bring more equitable return from labor and expenditure to all interested.

7. To make reports so frequently and give facts so soon after changes in prospective conditions occur, or so soon after actual yields are harvested, that the least possible element of uncertainty or speculative condition may prevail to remove prices from their normal economic place.

8. To give production by localities or crop areas, and to give local market demands, so that producers may know to which market to sell and and so that buyers may know where best to secure supplies, thus to equalize prices and to avoid loss from very low prices, an in case of heavy production of perishable products.

A STATE INSTITUTE.

Farmers throughout the State may be interested in an announcement made by Commissioner of Agriculture, Vreeland that during the latter part of February a State Farmers' Institute, or convention, will be held in Frankfort. The meeting will probably last three days, and during the time addresses will be made by some of the most popular lecturers from experiment stations in the country. There are fifty or more county institutions in the State and each will send from one to six delegates to the State convention. It is quite probable that the preliminary work of organization of the State Farmers' Institute will be done at Shelbyville. Prof. S. G. Hopkins, of the Illinois Experiment Station, one of the most noted corn experts in the world, will lecture on corn breeding. Prof. P. G. Holden, another authority on the subject, will also be present and give some advice along this line. Prof. M. A. Seovell, of the Kentucky Experiment Station and President James K. Patterson, of the State College are also on the program for addresses.

ISN'T IT ODD?

That most upright pianos are downright nuisances?

That so few men are competent to enjoy competency?

That it takes a strong company to make a weak stand?

That, although money talks, it never gives itself away?

That the chap most apt to get "soaked" is the one who's the driest?

That when an heir grows disolute his property becomes disolute?

That barnacles don't grow on barns, and that no tent is possessed of tentacles?

That when a man is "generous to a fault" you generally find the fault is one of his own?

That some folks seem to think that looking at work is the same thing as looking for it?

That a man may not run after people because they have money, and yet find them running after him because he has no money?

That you may refer to a friend as "A gay dog" and he will secretly feel flattered, while he will make any amount of trouble if you speak of him as a "pup"?

A GOOD LAW

Bill Introduced in the Legislature Designed to Stop the Secret Carrying of Weapons.

ELIZABETHTOWN NEWS' VERSION.

No measure introduced in the Legislature carries with it more importance to the welfare of our people and the reputation of the State than the measure introduced by Senator Ben Johnson a few days ago aimed to put a stop to the vicious and nefarious practice of carrying concealed deadly weapons.

The concealed deadly weapon is responsible for at least nine-tenths of all the killings in Kentucky and an equal number of shooting and cutting scrapes where the intention is to kill. The present law against carrying concealed weapons is totally inadequate to meet necessities of the case. It has never been known to prevent bad men from carrying a gun, while it has too often put the good men who respect all law, at a disadvantage.

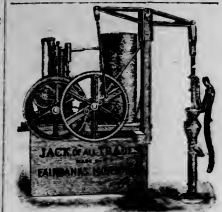

To make the carrying of concealed deadly weapons a felony will not correct the evil. The severity of the penalty will result, like the law making gambling a felony, a dead letter on our statute books. Kentucky has suffered in its reputation in the other States, preventing both out side capital and outside people coming to our borders from the general opinion that every Kentuckian carries a gun in one hip pocket and a bottle of whisky in the other, and that he is as free to use the one as he is the other. In part this a slander upon our State, but it is a fact that a portion of our people carry guns and that the first idea among this class of gun toters is to shoot somebody when in a difficulty and especially when it is known that the other has not a gun. The practice of carrying concealed deadly weapons costs the State every year many human lives that would be spared for years of usefulness if there was a stop put to pistol toting, and would also save the State thousands of dollars in criminal prosecutions.

Mr. Johnson's bill strikes at the very bottom of the evil. It provides that a man cannot enter the plea of self defense in murder, manslaughter or shooting or cutting with intent to kill if it is proven that at the time of the difficulty he had a concealed deadly weapon. No man will carry a gun or a knife for the purpose of shooting or cutting some one if the very thing he carries it for will send him to the penitentiary or the gallows when he carries his intentions into action. Instead of having a gun in a difficulty being an advantage to a man it will be a decided disadvantage. The bill should by all means become a law. Senator Johnson should have the backing of all good citizens in the matter, and the Commercial Club of Louisville cannot do a better thing for the advancement of Kentucky than to stand behind Senator Johnson in this very splendid measure.

The visit of ex-Governor Leslie to Kentucky recalls the fact that but few States have so many ex-Governors living in Kentucky. In addition to Leslie there is McCleary, Knott, Buckner and Bradley. It is doubtful if any State can show up five ex-Governors who represents so much intelligence, ability and statesmanship.

"Intelligence with activity, wholy without fear and plays no favorites," such is Town Marshall Stone, of Louisa, credited. It is a cinch he never was in Louisville.

Phil Shirrell is through plowing ground for corn—the first farmer on the list in this section.

Miss Florence Shirrell is teaching a subscription school at her brother's, near Milltown.

The Oyster supper at Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Grady's last Saturday night was largely attended. The occasion was enjoyable by every one present.

John R. Shirley, the well known trader of Milltown, was here a few days ago and says if I trade horses with the gypsies I take my medicine and let it go.

Mr. Sam Walkup made a business trip to Breeding last Friday.

Rev. J. W. Sexton has been confined to his room for several days with a complication of diseases.

The entire family of Mr. A. T. Shirrell has been sick for the past week.

H. C. Walker and G. T. Flowers were transacting business in Columbia last Friday.

J. C. Diddle, Paul Wilson, Lee and Miss Mollie Flowers, students of Columbia, spent last Saturday and Sunday at their homes, at this place.

The Juvenile Society met last Saturday night and rendered a very interesting program. The society is wide awake and is calculated to do a great deal of good.

W. W. Yates sold his one-third interest in the mill at this place to J. A. Diddle last week for $600.00.

The gypsies have been located here for a few days, and anyone that trades with them may abide by the consequences.

Tyler Scott and Perry Wilson, of Edmonton, stopped over for night with Mr. C. S. Bell one night last week while en route for Columbia.

Tom Wilson, of Bear Wallow, was with our stock men last Thursday and while here bought a young horse from Roy Walker, of Nell, for $125.

J. H. Smith is in Metcalfe county this week buying a nice lot of cattle at 3 and 3½ cts per pound, preparatory for the Louisville market.

Noah Akin, of Sparksville, was in our midst last Thursday and informed us that he was in the furniture business making and selling for the market.

Jo Coffey and Fred Robertson, of Columbia, were here one day last week and while here bought a combined horse from J. J. Hunter for $100.

Titus Mercer, of Milltown, was with us last Thursday offering a good price for stock hogs.

J. A. Diddle bought last week from R. L. Caldwell and W. M. Wilmore a nice bunch of hogs at 5 cts per pound.

R. L. Caldwell and Phil Shirrell made a trip to Pettisfork one day last week and brought back a nice lot of fish, the first for the season.

Miss Dollie Dohoney, of Milltown spent several days of last week visiting her sister, Mrs. R. L. Caldwell.

Miss Pearl Pendleton, who has been visiting her brother, J. F. Pendleton, for a week or so, returned to her home last Sunday, at Sulphur well.

We are glad to note the little boy of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pendleton, who has been sick for several days, is improving.

Altsheier & Wilson, of Horse Cave, passed through here last Friday on their return from Columbia with a nice lot of horses and mules that they had purchased.

We are just in receipt of a letter from our friend, W. D. Bradshaw, who is spending the winter months in Deland, Fla. We are glad to know that he is so well pleased with the Southern climate.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wilmore celebrated the 15th anniversary of their son, Coakly, last Wednesday. The occasion will long be remembered by everyone present.

Mr. Charles Sparks, the well known merchant of Weed, was in our midst a day or so ago and informed us that his neighbors (to-wit) Filmore Sparks and Robert Yates had been associated with the Gypsies so much in the last month that they had formed a partnership with them and would start out in a few days with them. The former telling fortunes and the latter writing a history of their performance.

Defies Time.

One of the most beautiful women in America defies the ravages of time by simply keeping her blood purified with Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It will do the same for you. If taken at the least sign of bowel, liver or stomach trouble, it will prevent all kinds of sickness, keep your circulation clear, and your skin and complexion as fresh and pure as in childhood. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page & Moore, of Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

MONTPELIER.

Eld. F. J. Barger will preach at Pleasant Hill next 4th Sunday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. Geo. Young last Sunday.

Misses. Stella and Sallie Jones, Cordie and Jessie Taylor were the guests of Miss Thetis Williams last Thursday night.

Miss Lena Williams, who is visiting relatives in Arkansas, is expected home soon.

Lucian Moore sold V. M. Epperson six head of cattle last week, price unknown.

T. D. Hadley was in Columbia last Thursday.

Miss Nancy Willis visited her brother, Oliver, near Joppa, last week.

Miss Ella Cundiff has a class of thirteen in music. She is much liked as an instructor.

Misses. Stella Jones and Gertrude Murrah were in Columbia last Tuesday shopping.

Now and Then

Some thorough and careful physician invents, in his practice, some special medicine, that proves so universally successful whenever prescribed, that he proceeds to place it before the public to be reached through the newspapers. This is the history of Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. For years, prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell for constipation, and all disorders of liver, stomach, and bowels, it was at last manufactured on a large, and is now the most successful medicine in the world for these diseases. A pure, scientific, tonic, laxative, syrup; pleasant to take and perfect in results. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page & Moore, of Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

KNIFELEY.

Zero weather here is the order of the day and severe on both people and stock as the winter has been warm.

The health of this community is good, generally speaking.

The cold weather has caused general check in all kinds of farm work. The people are taking rest for more favorable weather.

J. M. Hendrickson bought a span of mules from W. Pendleton for $300.

Willie Feese bought a span of 3-year-old mules from J. A. Dulworth for $250.

Miss Mattie Hancock sold a cow and young calf to J. J. Humphrey for $25.

Mr. Richard Humphress sold six head of 2-year-old mules to Will Mat Dudgeon for $450.

J. A. and Ed Young, on their return home from the upper counties, stopped one night last week with their mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Young.

J. R. Slaughter has completed his new dwelling and removed to it.

W. J. Tucker has removed to Irvin's Store for the purpose of working with J. W. Jackson at his saw mill.

Heaton Dunbar was in the Columbia market last Thursday with a span of 3-year-old mules.

Mr. Hobson & Co. are rapidly filling their yard with hickory timber and still it comes.

We are pleased to know of interest manifested by so many of our citizens over the County through the News. We say keep up the fight for we can not agree with Capt. Bradshaw as to gravel as a metal for a road. We think that gravel in sufficient quantities where it is close to the road makes a splendid and pleasant road for the country. Of course for a stage route or town and city streets, stone is the best.

Twice Told Tales.

Some tales never lose in telling, and the tale of good that Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin will, and does do, to all poor, dyspeptic, bilious sufferers, is one of them. It positively relieves and cures all forms of indigestion, starts up the languid liver, regulates the constipated bowels, and restores the entire system to a perfect condition of health. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page & Moore, of Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

PORTLAND.

We are glad to see our little place keeping step with her "father county." About six or seven hundred dollars worth of stock exchanged hands here during the past week.

The sudden change in the weather somewhat reminds us of Winter.

Miss Sallie Diddle, of Columbia, spent several days here visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Mollie Caldwell returned from Gradyville Sunday accompanied by Mr. R. L. Caldwell and daughter, Mary.

Mr. W. W. and C. H. Yates were here on business last week.

Mr. Sam Evans, of Edith, passed through here buying furs, and spent the night with J. A. Caldwell.

G. B. Yates and wife, of Joppa, were the guests of Mrs. W. C. Yates and wife last Saturday night.

Rollin and Rufus Caldwell, students of M. & F. School, were at home Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cobb Sunday.

W. C. Yates made a quick trip to Columbia last Tuesday, accompanied by his sister, Miss Irene, who will visit her brother, J. B. Yates, at Somerset, before she returns.

Mrs. Birt McLain is on the sick sick.

Mrs. Jennie Franklin, one of our oldest citizens is a little ill, something unusual for this old lady notwithstanding she is more than four score.

Mrs. Etta Caldwell has received seven new samples of wall paper books and is now ready to take orders.

Mrs. S. D. Caldwell sold 50 hens last week.

Mr. Lewis Compton delivered a nice lot of fur amounting to $46 to C. W. Pile, of Campbellsville.

There is about 50,000 pounds of tobacco in this section unsold.

We wish to answer Mr. W. A. Royse's problem through the News, stating that "My father was once twenty-seven times as old as I was, now he wants seventeen years of being twice as old as I am. How old am I? The son is 43 and the father 69. This is the solution: When the son was 1 year old, the father was 27, the father is then 26 years older than the son. After the son gets to be 26 years old, the father will be twice as old. As many years as they live after the son gets to be half as old as the father, the father will want that many years to be twice as old. If the father wants 17 years of being twice as old, they would have to live 17 years after the son is half as old as the father; therefore, 17 plus 26 equals 43, son's age; 17 plus 52 equals 69, father's age.
